First Sunday of Advent Year B

This Sunday marks the beginning of Advent season and a new liturgical year. We are, now, in Year B on Sunday. Prior to Vatican II, the same selected texts for the Sundays of the year are repeated the following year. The Sunday readings were also read on weekdays. Following the reforms of Vatican II (1962 to 1965), the liturgical year and lectionary for Sundays and weekdays were divided into a three-year cycle (A, B, and C) and a two-year cycle respectively, in order to provide a comprehensive reading from almost all the books of the Bible for better understanding of the word of God.

Advent season is observed as a time of special preparation to mark the birth of Jesus Christ. It is a penitential, soul-searching, and spiritual reawakening journey to renew us to welcome the "Word Made Flesh." The word Advent comes from the Latin word adventus, which means coming.

Many churches are decorated with Advent wreath from this first Sunday of Advent. It is important to note that wreaths were used by many ancient cultures but the use of Advent wreath in churches is said to have begun among the Lutherans in the 16th century, and from there spread to other churches. Advent wreath further explains the meaning of Advent season:

The green wreath in circle form symbolizes God's eternity and everlasting life (Ps 90:2). Candle light symbolizes Jesus, the light of the world (Jn 8:12). The four candles symbolize the four weeks of Advent. The first purple candle is called Candle of Hope. "In his name, the nations will put their hope" (Mt 12:21). The hope that does not disappoint (Rom 5:5). The second purple candle is called Candle of Peace. Jesus is the Prince of Peace (Is 9:6). The third candle, pink in colour, is called Candle of Joy. "Fear not, for I bring you good news of great joy" (Lk 2:10). The third purple candle, which is the fourth candle, is called Candle of Love. "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only-begotten Son, that whosoever believes in him may not perish, but have life eternal" (Jn 3:16). A good spiritual preparation makes every Christmas become the first Christmas. Let us pay attention to the readings of Advent season Masses. They will help us in the spiritual preparation.

Today's Reading: Is 63:16-17, 64:1, 3,8; Ps 79; 1 Cor 1:3-9; Mark 13:33-37

Responsorial Psalm: God of hosts, bring us back; let your face shine on us and we shall be saved.

Next Sunday: Is 40:1-5, 9-11; Ps84; 2 Peter 3:8-14; Mark 1:1-8

Mass Times:

Mon—Fri 9.00am.

Saturday: 9am; Vigil 6.30pm

Sunday: 8.30am; 10am

Adoration & Confession

NOTICES:

Year of Prayer, starting Advent 2023- In preparation for the 2025 Jubilee Year - entitled "Pilgrims of Hope" - 2024 has been designated as a Year of Prayer by Pope Francis. Every Catholic is encouraged to reflect on their life of prayer: what they pray, how they pray and why they pray. Please see poster on the church noticeboard for more information, or go to www.vocations.org.uk/year-of-prayer-2024

Rye St Antony - Nine Lessons and Carols Service, Sunday 10th Dec from 6.30pm in church. All parishioners welcome. Service is followed by refreshments in the hall.

The Porch - as always, we plan to take gifts to the homeless at the Porch on Christmas Day. Please bring your donations of chocolates, biscuits, toiletries, gloves, scarves and hats and put them in the box at the back of the church.

Readers over Christmas period: Please can readers let Jane know their availability over Christmas. A list will be at the back of the church or you can contact her via jane.kennett@googlemail.com

Christmas bring and share, Sunday 17th Dec after 10am mass. In view of the fact that we are not having a Christmas bazaar this year, please bring Christmas biscuits, mince pies or cake to share over tea and coffee.

Banners on church fencing - Father Emmanuel has given the NHS permission to fix two vinyl banners on our fence to advertise for job vacancies, which will be up until the end of January.

Offertory Contribution: In addition to the weekly envelope offerings and the card reader there are other ways to contribute to the parish. If you do online banking, consider a monthly gift by Standing Order. You can set it up yourself or request for a Bank Standing Order form for you to complete and return to us or send directly to your bank.

Gift-Aid: If you pay Income Tax in the UK, please consider Gift-Aiding your donation to the parish. In this scheme the government give the church extra 25p on every pound you give. Example: if any tax-payer gives the church £100 donation for the year, the church will claim from the government extra £25 without any extra cost to the person. It's like giving £125 by that person. Help the Church to get the extra cash from the government. Please ask for the gift-aid form or bank standing order form. Forms are available at the back of the Church.
